

UBH Publications

From: [aarahlogan@covad.net]
Sent: Thursday, December 09, 2004 10:32 PM
To: ubhpublications1@covad.net
Subject: Great Hair!!

Dear Ms. Howse,

I just had to send you an email to tell you thank you so much for your book. It has truly given me hope and answered a question I always asked. I always wondered why African-American women suffered with short breaking hair, unlike women of other color.

I purchased your book in September and ordered your conditioner and dew spray around the same time. I have to say it is December and my hair is already growing without breaking. My hair is in the best shape it has ever been in. Trust me, I am a typical black woman that had the ability to grow hair, but could not. My hair was always dry and started breaking as soon as any little growth appeared. I had no idea how important deep conditioning and moisture was. I thought my hair would never grow unless I went to a beauty shop and spent about 30 to 40 dollars a week. I could not afford the money or the time and my hair always looked horrible. I cut it many times and tried to start over.

Your book gave me common sense tips and a wealth of information about how to care for African-American hair. I was so excited with my results that I even referred my mom to your book and products. I tell all my co-workers and anyone that is having hair problems that will listen. I am so happy. I do my own hair and it looks so healthy and continues to grow. I am now armed with the knowledge of what products I can use and what products to avoid. I love your conditioner, and I use your dew spray as a leave in conditioner. I have found some great cream moisturizers on the market that do not contain any mineral or petroleum oil in them. I have not been able to try your cream moisturizer yet, but when I reorder more conditioner, I will give it a try.

I even practice most of your tips on my daughters hair and feel empowered now to care for their hair without going to a beauty shop. You are the best thing that has happened for black hair in my opinion. I was skeptical about the book because it got some bad reviews on Amazon, but i purchased it anyway, I can now truly testify that it was the best investment I ever made. Anyone who ready your book and thinks you are a fraud is a FOOL!! Everyone who sticks with your system will know the truth. Every penny spent is well worth it. The money for the book and products does not compare to what women spend every month on going to a shop every one or two weeks.

You are the best. I will write again to keep you informed of my continued success and to remind you of how wonderful you are. You and your knowledge was truly a God send!!

Thank you,
Aarah Logan

