Cathy,

What a wonderful book! I'm reading it right now. I've read it before but I've always been in such a hurry that I've the end of my time I've read it again.
I have seen the adaptation they made and I should tell the difference the first time. My time felt great! Keep up the good work. I'm sure you know the truth about my own time.

Thanked,
Patricia Ransom
