

Cathy

From: ASHLEY BRANCH
Sent: Friday, February 22, 2008 9:18 AM
To: ubhpublications1@covad.net
Subject: Hello

Hello Cathy, my name is Ashley and I just wanted to let you know that I ordered your book and your products. I've been trying to grow my hair long for years since I cut it in 2005. I mean I did some major damaged, and I didn't know what to do, I dyed it, relaxed it, not moisturizing enough, brushing, blowing drying, curling with the curling iron, I was like what's going on. I was in the Navy and it was hard to take care of my hair, when I got out, I was like, now I can take care of my hair, but I was still doing my own relaxers, because in Hawaii, they don't know about our hair, and I still blow-dried, I started taking vitamins, they worked, but I felt like something was still missing, so I surfed the Internet and came across your website, and I read it and fell in love, I was like, so that's what I've been doing wrong, so I ordered your book and read that, I love it, it's the hair bible for black women. then I ordered your products, I LOVE YOUR MOISTURIZER, DEW SPRAY, AND YOUR CONDITIONER IS GOD SENT ALSO. I started your maintenance program two weeks ago and I already feel a difference in my hair. I didn't know it was that dry. I'm happy you shared your research with other black women, so you can help us grow our hair, I had long hair when I was in the 5Th grade,(I'm 23 now) but ever since then, it's been medium length, and I want it longer, it's getting there, I stopped trimming it, blow-drying, curling, and most of all I stopped brushing it, it was hard, but I haven't brush my hair in three weeks, and I moisturize it more then what I use too. I still get relaxers(professionally), but I decided to go 4-6 months on them, because I know they are damaging. My ends break off, but it's caused by blow-drying and using the curling all the time like to use to do, I don't do that anymore. Thank you so much, I'm hoping it will grow to my bra strap, and if possible it will grow to my waist, I'm 5'4 and that's a lot of hair, again, THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR TAKING THE TIME TO RESEARCH OUR HAIR. Have a good day.

Very Respectfully
Ashley B.
South Carolina

P.S.
I will order more of products soon.